

Creative Consciousness South Africa's Lead Trainers

Mark is an accredited Professional Coach, qualified through the Consciousness Coaching® Academy (CCA). He is also an examiner, coach trainer and co-trainer for CCA, as well as a member of the ICF at Professional Certified Coach (PCC) level. Mark is an expert trainer and facilitator of leadership, communication and conflict resolution workshops with a demonstrated aptitude for supporting corporate organisations and top executives.

Ilana is an ICF ACC accredited International Coach, Facilitator, Coach Supervisor and Trainer qualified through the Consciousness Coaching Academy® (CCA). Ilana is a highly capable developer and facilitator of coach training. She has a vast portfolio of training and coaching within multi-national companies in the areas that range from smoking cessation, diversity facilitation to local coaching clients from various industries. She supports any individual in achieving their goals in any area they wish and step into new levels of success; develop communication skills and being in action of their committed word.

Rienzo is a professional coach and trainer. An ICF ACC (Associate Certified Coach) and an Expert Consciousness Coach (ECC) for Creative Consciousness. He has been a member of the Consciousness Coaching Academy since 2011 and is passionate about human behaviour and personal transformation.

He believes in the Greatness of all humans and a trademark of his trainings is that he "leaves no-one behind".

With his passion for Transformation and 20 years of business leadership experience, he is responsible for developing specialised Conscious Sales, Entrepreneur and Leadership programmes that are used across corporate South Africa.